YOUR MISSION

Colour a snowy workshop. Solve Finn's puzzle. Find a route for Hex. Check Alfie's parcels. Make something wonderful.

For grown-ups

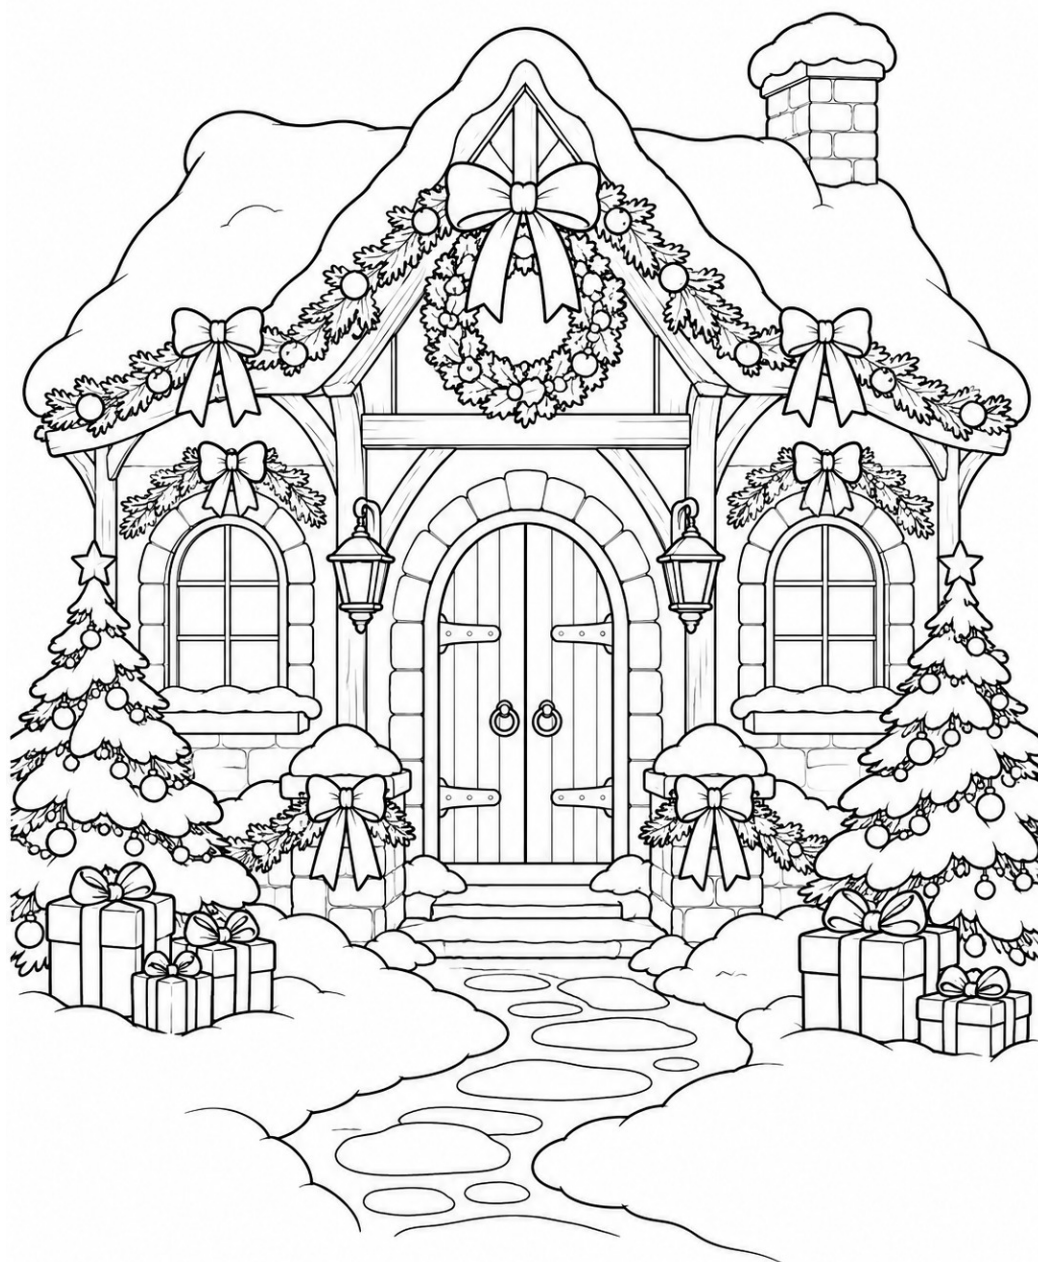

Designed for roughly ages 5-9, with help for younger children. Print A4 at actual size. Skip the cover to save ink. Scissors are for grown-ups to supervise. Answers are on the last page.

These are printable activities to enjoy offline. No upload or online return is needed. Show your finished creations to someone at home!

PIP'S COLOURING CORNER

The snowy workshop

Bring the North Pole to life with your favourite Christmas colours.

Pip asks: can you add three tiny golden stars to the sky?

NORTH POLE WORD SEARCH

Finn's missing words

Find all eight Christmas words. They run across or down, never backwards. Circle them as you go!

CHRISTMAS COLOURING

Santa's special delivery

Santa has a little Christmas magic ready. What colours will you choose?

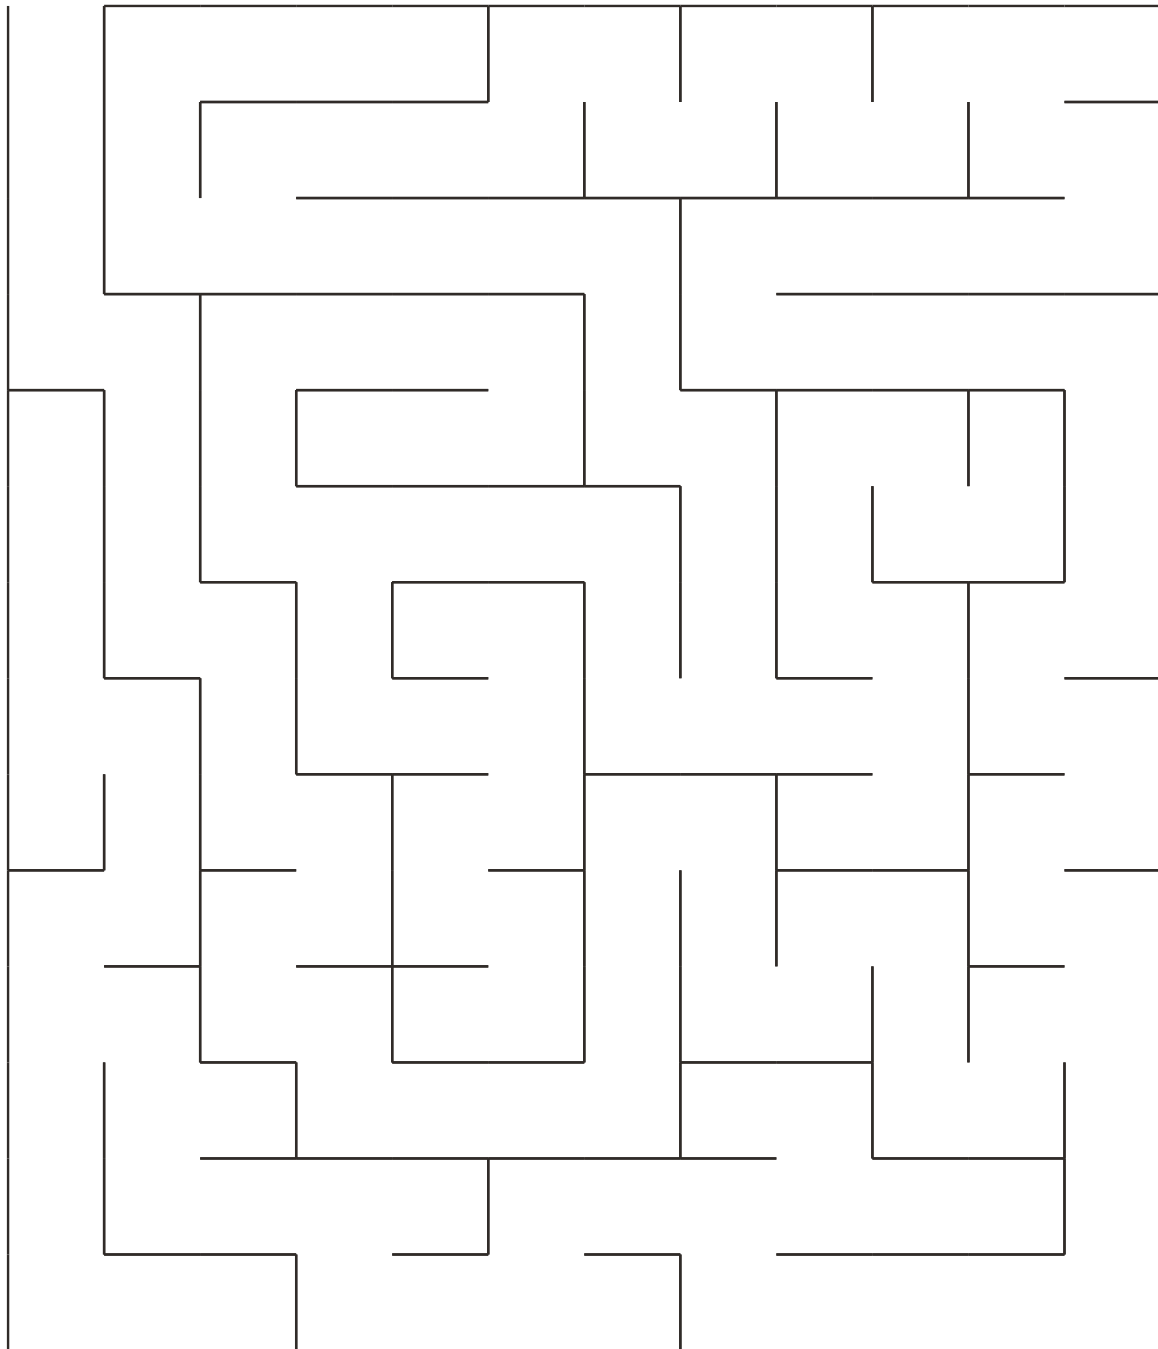

Santa asks: draw a tiny gift tag and write your name on it.

THE REPAIR MISSION

Hex's workshop maze

Hex needs his tools! Trace the path from START to FINISH without crossing a wall.

PIP & FINN COLOURING

A gift from the elves

Pip and Finn are wrapping a special surprise. Colour their winter workshop.

Finn asks: design your own pattern on the biggest gift box.

THE SORTING OFFICE

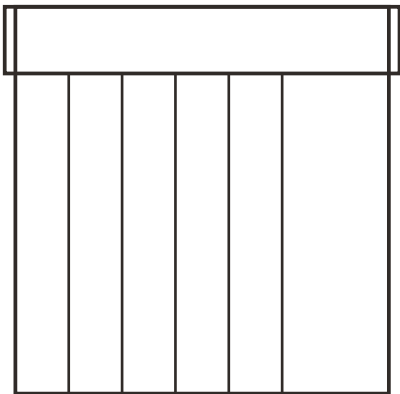

Alfie's parcel check

Alfie is in a hurry. Use each clue to match every child to the right parcel. Write their name beneath it.

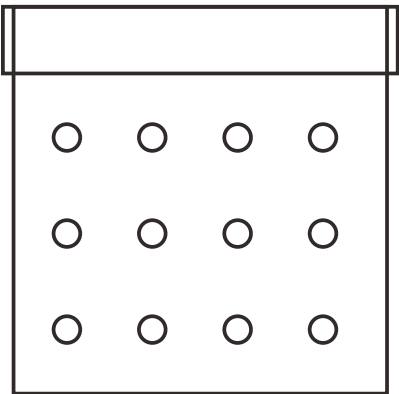

Lily loves stars.

Noah loves stripes.

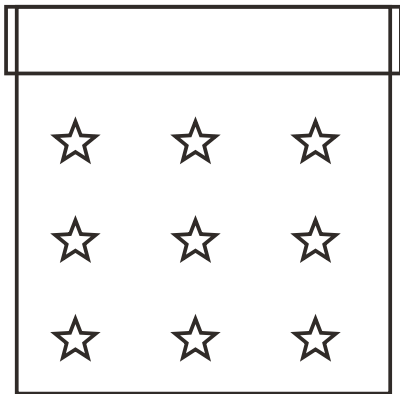

Ava loves spots.

PARCEL 1

PARCEL 3

EXTRA CHECK

Each parcel needs 2 labels. How many labels are needed for all 3 parcels?

Alfie needs _____ labels.

PIP'S CREATIVE MISSION

Design the wrapping paper

Make a repeating Christmas pattern. Try bows, stars, snowflakes or little trees. Then colour your design.

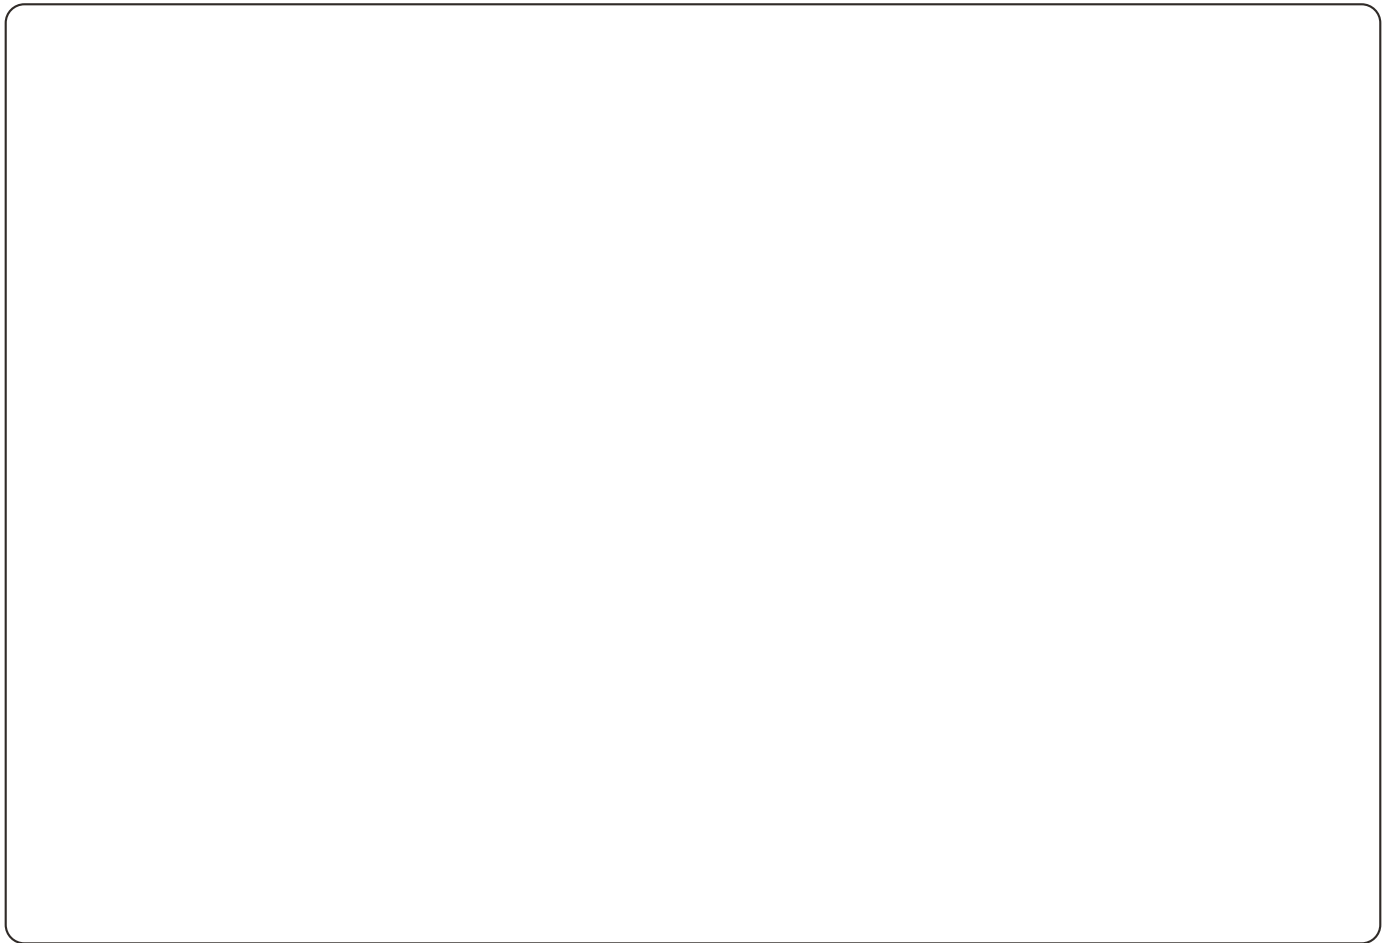

My wrapping paper is called:

Show your design to someone. Which gift would you wrap with it?

SANTA NEEDS YOUR IMAGINATION

Invent a new reindeer

Draw a reindeer for the North Pole team. Add antlers, a cosy scarf and one magical detail of your own.

My reindeer's name

Their magical talent

Their favourite snack: _____

PIP'S LITTLE ADVENTURE

The Christmas treasure hunt

Look around your home with a grown-up. Tick each box when you find something that fits the clue.

☐

Something red

☐

Something soft and cosy

☐

Something shaped like a star

☐

Something shiny

☐

Something that makes a sound

☐

Something you would give as a gift

ONE LAST MISSION

Do one kind thing: help tidy up, make a card or say something lovely. Draw a star here when you have finished.

No climbing, opening cupboards or going outside is needed.

FINN'S MAKE & COLOUR

My Christmas door hanger

Colour and decorate. Ask a grown-up to help cut around the outline, then cut out the circle and slit.

Decorate the empty spaces with snowflakes, bows and Christmas colours.

A LITTLE CHRISTMAS KEEPSAKE

Official North Pole helper

For completing your activities with imagination, kindness and a little elf determination.

Alfie's parcel check

Parcel 1 (stripes): Noah. Parcel 2 (spots): Ava. Parcel 3 (stars): Lily. 3 parcels x 2 labels = 6 labels.

Creative activities

There are no right or wrong colours or drawings. Let children invent their own patterns, reindeer and elf names. The treasure hunt can use toys, clothing or decorations already in the room.

A note from Pip

The best bit? Seeing what your little helper makes. Display a favourite colouring page or hang their certificate somewhere special.
